Songs of Plain Folks

By James Lewis Hays

I will

Oh, waving field of yellow wheat Beneath the dancing summer heat,
Your golden promises sustain
Our hearts, unwearied, and again
We hope to cut sun-ripened grain.

But if the hail reaps we reap, Well, we have farmer's hearts that keep
No bitterness from sun to sun;
We've lost before, and then begun
A fresh;—we know how that is done.

We've seen wheat shatter, burn, and mould, Sprout in the shock, and we have sold For half an honest price, and still We plow and harrow, disk, and drill.
The key to farming is "I will!"

Shall We Glorify the Sheik Rather Than Aid His Victims?

Would it not be a grand and glorious thing if we all could work up our enthusiasm to the same pitch that we can on some other issues and prove to the world that the milk of human kindness was still available for those who have met disappointment and financial reverses when they have just reached the sunset of life's journey?

We have in mind an aged United Presbyterian couple in this county that within the twink of an eye lost the major portion of their life savings when they were induced to invest in a worthless enterprise by a financial sheik, a member of their own congregation, who knowing this aged couple to be inexperienced in such affairs, took advantage of their situation and misled them that he might profit to the extent of 20 per cent.

Now that the pulp and the rostrum has been opened that the sheik may glorify himself, the same should be open to a call that those who may have applauded might again have the same opportunity of walking up and expressing a willingness to prove to the outside world, that we are willing to be taken at our word and make good the wrong that was inflicted upon a helpless aged couple.

We know how the world looks on such things and the world passes a judgment that cannot be scoffed at by those who would glorify the sheik.

We await the "Amens" from the supporters of the sheik!

Young Mother Is Called By Death

Mrs. Ruth A. DeVault, 33, wife of Noah F. DeVault, Xenia, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Herman K.
Stormont, one-half mile east of Cedarville, Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock.
Mrs. DeVault had been at her sister's home since last Labor day, and her death was the result of a malignant tumor.

She was born in Middletown, O., January 5, 1894. She is survived by her husband and four children: Dorothy, 7; Katherine, 5; Jean, 3, and Ruth Alice, 4 months. Her marriage took place eight years ago, October 23.

Suit Prompt Over Youthful Marriage

His wife brought about their marriage by fraud and deceit, Richard Phillips, Jr., Jamestown, a minor, charges in a divorce petition brought by his father and next friend, against Irene Gray Phillips, in common pleas court.
They were married at Springfield, August 19, 1927, and have no children.
Plaintiff charges that his wife withheld the knowledge that she was not of good moral character until after their marriage. His wife left him after living in Jamestown for a time after their marriage and when he visited her to learn the reason for her behavior, her deceit became known.

—Harry Westerman, Ohio State Journal

The recent decision of the United States Supreme Court has checked the operation of the "commercialized" justice of peace court. A bill passed by the last legislature and now up for a referendum vote next Tuesday, is expected to restore the lost power to "commercialized" courts. The organized automobile clubs of Ohio are motorist. The automobile clubs fought the bill in the legislature but could not offset the strength of the lobby.

That the motorist is to be the goat if this bill is approved Tuesday can be best proven by a letter sent out a few days ago by John R. Holcomb, a justice of peace in Franklin county. In that letter he urges all justices to campaign for the salary graft law to again put the justice court in action. That the motorist may know what kind of a court Holcomb operated the State Bureau of Accounting found Holcomb had failed to turn over to his own (Clinton) township $682.50, and the state $461.50, covering a period of 19 months. During the 18 months Holcomb had 583 cases. Of that number 115 were liquor cases and 342 against motorists. Automobile owners certainly can see from this record that the bill is aimed at motorists and that ticks on the roadside are before you if you do not vote to protect your own interest.

LOCAL TEAM EASY WINNER OVER ANTIOCH

Cedarville Yellow Jackets had a walkover Tuesday afternoon when the Antioch team went down in defeat by a score of 40 to 6. This was the second defeat this season for the visitors before the O. C. boys.

Antioch played a good game the first half but the local boys took the pace the second and third quarters.
Rutan and Adair took honors for the Yellow Jackets Fisher put over a sensational pass. Adair placed four perfect kicks. Bostwick and Seaman played leads for Antioch.

Yellow Jackets Tied With Earlham

The College Yellow Jackets held the Earlham team down to a tie score on Saturday, 13 to 13. The game was one of the best of the season and the large delegation that went along were well repaid for the trip.

Gov. Donahey Against Justice Fee Bill

The Anti Saloon League Wednesday sent out a statement that Gov.
Donahey favored the Marshall bill.
Thursday the Governor issued a statement that he favors it no more now than last spring when he refused to sign the measure.

The League should send out the endorsement of the measure by the Klan.
There would be no denial of such action. The Klan wants the measure for its Klan justices and constables, some of which are located in this county.

Vote! But don't be Voted.

Supreme Court Rules On Written Names

The Ohio Supreme Court has just handed down a very important ruling governing the counting of ballots in elections. For years past where a name was written on the ballot it was necessary for the voter to place an 'X' may be conflicting. The decision supercedes the election law.

This rule settles all contests in the future and will be a guide for judges at the polls, even though the statutes may be conflicting. The decision supercedes the election law.

The case decided was from Montgomery county where a Common Pleas court held that the "X" was not necessary where the voter wrote in a name, as the mere fact that the name was written, in was proof of the intent of the voter.

KLAN MAKES NEW ATTACK ON BOARD

The Klan was out again Thursday night distributing campaign literature in the interest of the Klan slate for Members of the County School Board.

Renewed attacks are made on members Hastings, Rife, Bales, Fisher, Bryson, the whole family, sons, brothers, as well as William Anderson, president of the Farm Bureau.

Only one name was omitted. That of Horace Anderson. The circular does not take into consideration that this Klansman is a member of the Xenia township Board running for re-election.

The attitude of the Herald disturbs the Kluxers. It may yet disturb them more. Super government in Greene county where trades have been made with reform politicians to get the Klan vote even on the justice salary bill. The literature is edited from the Allen building, Xenia, printed out of the county and approved by the famous "reform brothers", that are using the pulpits of the county to cover up their connection with the night riders.

The next issue of the New Jasper Gazette should tell the public about what the Marshall Klux reformers have been doing for the cause. The friends of the County Board members would like to hear about them and what all this rush of Klan members to the house of Marshall means.
Get one of the yellow circulars and read it. Let your answer be recorded at the polls Tuesday. A vote for Rife and Bales and "NO" on the Marshall bill will answer everything.

For Rent—70 acre farm. Cash rent.

TANKED LOBBYIST CAMPAIGNS FOR JUSTICE BILL

One utility lobbyist recently took on an over supply of liquor and while in Wilmington began to campaign for the justice of peace graft bill. Being a leader in the "third house", the lo-by organization, it was up to the former lobbyist for the liquor interests, to get things right in his home county.
To advocate a "prohibition cause" the lobbyist first tanked up and started out to turn over the town.

Finding some opposition from auto owners to the proposed graft bill, the lobbyist in his frenzied state of mind, boasted that he controlled the county and would carry it for the "prohibition cause" even if they had to steal the election. This enraged the auto owners and sent them in the wool prohibitionists under cover, until they could transport the lobbyist back to his home in Columbus.

The Automobile Clubs have taken the matter up and have endeavored to get Sen. (?) Marshall, to express himself on the episode—but nothing doing.

Last December we wrote the Anti Saloon League in reference to the utility liquor party given at the Desh-ler hotel for Senator Marshall and his friends. Our interest was in behalf of Sen. Kummer of Preble county as speaker pro-tem. The League was supposed to back a dry candidate but instead double-crossed Kummer and a Cleveland liberal received all but eight votes, in electing that of Sen. Marshall. Sen. Kummer is prominent in the Lutheran church. This denomination has not endorsed the graft bill nor is Sen. Kummer campaigning for it.

We might say further that the Anti Saloon League has not yet answered our letter, which was written nearly a year ago.

Students Must Use Absent Voters Ballots

We have been asked by several as to students voting. One or two who are interested have made inquiry and we find this week that the absent voters law forbids anyone voting who is attending school. All must be 21 years of age, a resident of the state one year and the county or township 30 days. No one is deprived of a vote but all away from home must obtain absent voters' ballots. There is no such thing as temporary residence.

Where Is the Voice of Fess, Willis, Brand, In This Campaign?

What voter in Ohio can recall a pure wet and dry contest that both Senators S. D. Fess and Frank B.
Willis did not have a part? Both of these senators have always campaigning for the dry cause.

Who is there that can point to these same senators as campaigning over the state for the justice of peace graft bill?

These men realize the bill is a makeshift measure to nullify the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court. Both being versed in legislative matters they do not care to risk their reputation in going before the public and attempting to leave the impression that the bill is something which it is not.

We might also call your attention to the fact that James A.
White, former superintendent of the Ohio Anti Saloon League has not been found traveling over Ohio in behalf of the justice bill. Why not?

The Hon. Charles Brand, Congressman from this the Seventh District, a strong supporter of prohibition in and out of congress, is another legislator that has not been heard on the stump or off on a bill that has a direct bearing on a U. S. Supreme Court decision. Is it possible the Anti Saloon League has the congressman listed as a wet?

The present bill was opposed by the late Wayne B. Wheeler but the League does not tell you that. In his pending before the United States Supreme Court, Mr. Wheeler endeavored to uphold the law that was held invalid later.

Mr. Wheeler is quoted from his brief on file in the Court as follows:

"If mayors (or justices) are guaranteed their costs without regard to the outcome of the case, this would not reduce the chances of unwarranted arrests. It might result in more arrests, and if mayors (or justices) were inclined to be corrupt they would get their costs from the state or county and emerge with the lawbreaker in giving him an acquittal."

Mr. Wheeler disagreed with Columbus headquarters and opposed the bill in the present forum at that time for just what the automobile clubs are contending today that the motorists of Ohio by the aid of the justice of peace bill would be the goat. But the Anti Saloon League does not mention the position of their former illustrious chief in this contest!

The U. S. Court put the grafting justice of peace out of business and is not now attempting to hold up motorists to get the fees. The Anti Saloon League does not tell the owners of motor vehicles that such is the case. John R. Holcomb of Franklin county has appealed to all the justices of peace in Ohio to lend support to the bill, that they can again be legalized and put in position to continue the harvest at the expense of the motorists of the state.

Every motorist owes it to himself to go to the polls Tuesday and vote against this bill which former followers of the Anti Saloon League have not championed.

Mother of Rev Jamieson Died In Monmouth

Word was received here of the death of Mrs. Jamieson in Monmouth, Ill., on Tuesday. Death was due to infirmities of old age as the deceased would have been 91 years old Nov. 16th. The funeral was held yesterday with burial in Monmouth. The following sons survive: C. M. Jamieson, Monmouth; Dr. A. W. Jamieson, Rushville, Ind.;
Dr. J. F. Jamieson, Monmouth, Ill.; Rev. F. R. Jamieson, Sugar Creek, Rev.
H. M. Jamieson, Everett, Wash.;

Salesman Supports Auto Owners In Fight

A traveling salesman informed us Wednesday that his house had not yet withdrawn the request that all salesmen oppose the justice graft bill when ever opportunity presented itself. Before the Taft decision the salesman were frequently pulled into the highway courts.

At a salesman's meeting the owner of the business asked the men on the road to oppose the bill. The owner of the business is a Methodist and attended the M. E. conference but the tears of the utility controlled speaker pleading for the "cause" had no effect on this business man. The salesmen continue to preach the cause of the motorist. A salesman representing this house stated Wednesday that the bill would be defeated by 250,000 in the state.

CELEBRATION HIT POPULAR CORD MONDAY NIGHT

Monday was a great night for the gownups as well as the youngsters.

The Halloween celebration sponsored by the I. O. O. F. lodge and the local merchants brought out a crowd conservatively estimated from 2,500 to 3,000 people. Delegations were here from Xenia, Springfield, Yellow Springs, Jamestown and other neighboring towns. Regardless of the threatening weather early in the evening and a slight shower about 9:30 the event went over in great style and was pleasing to all.

Main streets were turned into a playground and the happy masqueraders enjoyed the time of their lives. There was every conceivable costume to be seen and almost every character was represented.

Death stalked along the hollow eyed black and fearsome, with scythe over his shoulder. Skeletons with bones gleaming slipped here and there Gypsies, Spanish dancers, Scotchman and maiden presented a pleasing sight to the hundreds that turned out for the occasion. Old men dressed as the youth, young people dressed as old, all had their place in the grand parade that numbered 400. Continual people for honors from the judges.

The crowd was in holiday mood and there was perfect order. While there were extra efforts for the event the committee congratulates itself that not even one was needed at any time during the evening.

Mr. Lloyd Confar was master of ceremonies for the evening and he had little or no trouble in broadcasting the events and the results of the decisions on the part of the judges.
The judges were Leo Anderson, Ralph Wolford, Ancil Wright, Mrs. David Adair and Miss Kathleen Blair.

The local band played early in the evening until the arrival of the O. S.
& S. O. Home Band. This is a splendid organization and the band members were highly appreciated by the big crowd.

Following the grand march and the cake-walk, rain broke in on the event and stopped some of the minor contests.

The committee had provided an orchestra from Dayton and dancing followed the street events.
The following won honors and prizes in the parade:

WHEN IN DOUBT VOTE—NO

There is an old saying that is as safe a rule to follow as any that can be quoted. "When in doubt vote—NO." This applies not only in elections but in decisions in many other matters that may confront you.

There will be two propositions on the referendum ballot this year. One to attempt to circumvent a recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, known as the justice of peace salary graft bill or Marshall law, the first on the ballot. This referendum was initiated by the automobile clubs against the return of the commercialized court. The measure was fought by the clubs in the legislature but by the aid of the utility lobby the bill was passed.

The second measure is known as the Chiropractor initiated bill. The chiropractors of the state want a separate licensing board. As there are other forms of practitioners it would not be long until they would want a board. We do not favor the exclusion of the chiropractors but they should be required to meet certain standards as a protection to public health. There is no reason why all the medical practitioners should be known as of one school any more than we should all be of the same religious denomination or political affiliation.

The Herald has for some years taken a stand against the constant demand for more officials, more boards, more of this and that, all of which must be paid for either by direct or indirect taxation. For this reason we can see no need of the present initiated bill. No chiropractor is now denied a license by the state board if all legal requirements are met.

Two "NO" votes on the referendum ballot will in our judgment be a safe guide when you vote Tuesday. The first is a vicious piece of legislation that is loaded for the motorists in an effort to nullify the recent decision of the highest court in the land.

PROHIBITION AND POLITICS

There has never yet been a single issue before the public that has permitted the politician the opportunity to play his game as there is today on the prohibition question. The dry as well as the wet politician is profiting in more ways than the public has any idea. The only difference between the two is that the professional dry politician hides behind a mask of brazen hypocrisy using any method of deception to fool the public. The wet politician has no chance to hide his position and usually does not care.

Just at present statements are being issued from various angles on the justice graft bill. B. F. McDonald, state prohibition commissioner, says the justice bill is necessary. W. H. Walker, Federal Prohibition Commissioner, says he can see no difference on law enforcement since the Supreme Court put the commercialized court out of business.

McDonald is a Democrat appointee under Gov. Donahay. It cannot be denied but that politics has played a large part in the enforcement of not only dry laws but others under this department. Several weeks ago a prominent woman from Butler county related how impossible it was to get the dry laws enforced in that county. Open gambling was permitted. Dog race gamblers by the thousands visited a track in that county. Complaint was made to McDonald and Donahay. The Sheriff and the Prosecuting attorney were refusing to take action. Attempt was made to get this matter before the Governor but Butler being a Democratic county, no action has ever been taken by either official to correct things. McDonald could cite the Sheriff and Prosecuting attorney before the Governor, but this he has not done. In Franklin county is another race course where the better citizens have entered a protest but no action has ever been taken by the Governor who could even remove the Sheriff for being negligent of his duty. This course was the favorite resort last spring for many members of the legislature. We have the names and the dates members visited the track and also those who purchased gamblers tickets on the races. It might be embarrassing to some to see these names in print, especially after the pulpits have been opened to one who violated the gambling laws of his state.

For this reason we say that much of the hokum put out by Columbus officials must be taken with a grain of salt. Spend a couple of weeks in Columbus during a legislative session and you will soon see and be convinced of some things that may be appealing to you today.

About the weakest argument we have yet read is that the justice bill is necessary because so many of the common pleas courts have refused to hear liquor cases. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is over every common pleas judge, but has the Anti Saloon League, or any individual, ever appealed to that tribunal to put a negligent common pleas judge on the carpet for violating his oath of office. Such a judge is subject to removal and he can be disbarred from the practice of law. Such an admission from a proponent of the justice court bill is admission that the only reason the common pleas judges have taken such a position, is purely political.

Any mayor or justice of peace today can bind a liquor law violator over to the grand jury and if indicted must be heard in Common Pleas Court. Who dares to deny the statement?

REPRESENTATION AND NO TAXATION

In another column will be found the rates of taxes for the various districts in the county. In most every instance there has been increases in the rates. One of the arguments two years ago was that with a higher valuation you would have a lower tax rate. There was some question about the statement at the time but the legislature forced the revaluation on us and if of course must be accepted. The legislature also gave you the new state tax levy.

We have now reached the time when more school room is necessary for the proper care of our children. At present the board of education is providing a temporary building that is for immediate use only. The high school and grades are now crowded beyond the lawful limit and before another year is past a new addition must be in the forming. This will be an additional expense to which taxpayers cannot seriously object for the school children must be taken care of.

For this reason we again advise that care should be taken in casting your vote for opening the county treasury that a set of inferior court officers, assistants, deputies, and other hangers-on can draw support from the county tax funds. The farm and the house owner pay the cost of government, good or bad, extravagant or economical.

Four years from now another revaluation on farms and homes will be compulsory unless the legislature repeals the law in the meantime. Valuations are never known to decrease on the average with revaluations. The future is before you. If you would have taxation forced on you by those who have representation without taxation, vote to open the county treasury to a horde of officials. You will reap the reward. The fellow that tells you you are to get something for nothing is looking for suckers.

AMOS PLEADS FOR JUSTICE

LESSON TEXT—Amos 5:1-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—Let judgment run down as waters and righteousness as a mighty stream.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Treating Everybody Right.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Kind of Man God Hates.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Sounding for God Against the Crowd.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Conditions of Divine Approval.

I. Israel's Desolation Predicted (vv. 1-3).

Amos lamented over the doom which was to overtake the nation. Israel is called a virgin because she had never been subdued by any foreign nation (see Isa. 23:12). Her falling to rise no more sets forth the utter desolation and helplessness to which the Assyrians subjected the nation. From this captivity Israel never returned. Those who came back from the Babylonian captivity were largely from Egypt.

II. The Call to Return to God.

God through the prophet says, "seek ye me and ye shall live." The implication is that while the divine judgments are not executed, an opportunity is offered for them to turn to God. In their turning to God they were to renounce:

1. Idolatry (vv. 5, 6).

They were to turn away from the places of idolatry—Bethel, Gilgal and Beersheba. God's judgment was to strike these places.

If they would not come to Him for life He would be their destroyer. "Our God is a consuming fire." The only one who can give life is the one who can destroy. "Seek Him is the one who shall destroy."

2. Cease to pervert judgment (v. 7).

"Turn judgment to wormwood" implies the bitterness of the perversion of justice to the injured.

3. Cease to detest the righteous (v. 10).

"Leaving off" righteousness is thought to mean that unrighteousness was allowed to take its place. In this third exhortation the Lord's name is given with the following statement of some of His works:

"Blotting the seven stars and overthrowing the pillars of death into morning; 2. "Blotting the day dark with night;" 4. "Salting the waters of the sea and pouring them out upon the earth," both in rain and deluge; 5. "Strengthened the spoil against the strong."

III. The Sins Committed by the Wicked Nation (vv. 10-13).

1. They hated the judge who condemned their wicked practices (v. 10).

2. They abhorred him that spoke uprightly (v. 10).

This most likely referred to the prophets themselves who told them of their sins and urged uprightness of life.

3. They trampled upon the poor (v. 11).

The rich built magnificent houses out of the proceeds extorted from the poor.

4. They afflicted the just (v. 12).

This they did by taking a bribe.

5. They turned aside the poor in the gate (v. 12).

Because they had no money the poor were turned aside.

It was most difficult for the poor to get justice. The times were so evil that the prudent would best keep silence.

IV. The Conduct of the Righteous (vv. 14, 15).

No condition in the world, religious, social or political, can become so difficult that the righteous are shut off from help. The righteous can:

1. Seek God (v. 14).

Those who seek good shall have with them the Lord God of Hosts.

2. Hate the evil (v. 15).

Evil must be hated. The sin question must be settled before God can bestow His blessings.

3. Establish judgment in the gate.

It was the custom in that day for the courts of justice to sit in the gate of the city. The prophet urges upon them the responsibility to place honorable men in charge of public affairs.

V. The Judgment to Fall (vv. 18-20).

There is coming a day of retribution. Justice and right shall be vindicated. This will be realized in the day of the Lord (II. Thess. 1:7-10; James 5:7). All wrong shall be righted at that time. May we earnestly pray, "thy kingdom come."

VI. Worship Without Holiness of Life an Abomination to God (vv. 21-27).

Sacrifices, observance of feast days and fasting, when the heart is out of fellowship with God, is most displeasing to Him.

A Menace to Public Health TEN REASONS WHY

For Your Own Protection, and for the Protection of Public Health

You Should Vote "No"

ON THE INITIATED CHIROPRACTORS BILL

- 1 All reasonably competent chiropractors can now secure licenses by taking examinations and complying with lawful requirements. (Over 135 have been licensed in the past three years.)
- 2 The Licensed Chiropractors Society of the State of Ohio is opposed to this bill, and is actively working against its passage. (The initiative is promoted by "advertising specialists" and UN licensed chiropractors.)
- 3 The health of the public is best protected by one licensing board.
- 4 There are many other limited practitioners. If the chiropractors are granted a special board, the others are equally entitled to them. With such multiplication the state would soon lose control of the public health situation.
- 5 The most serious damage would come from licensing limited practitioners to treat with impunity, infectious contagious and venereal diseases which they are not trained to recognize; and permit the filing of causes of death by those who have no knowledge or means of ascertaining such causes.
- 6 The enactment of the chiropractic proposal would make the morbidity and mortality and statistics of the Department of Health valueless.
- 7 There should be no multiplication of licensing boards for limited practitioners, nor should the present licensing system be submerged in any plan awarding special privilege.
- 8 The constitutionality of the Medical Practices Act of Ohio has been sustained and the act has been commended as adequate by the highest courts of the land.
- 9 If there should be any modification of the educational standards of those who treat the sick it should be to raise and not lower the requirements.
- 10 The initiated proposal is burdened with so many dangerous possibilities, with so many inconsistencies, and it would raise so many legal and constitutional questions, that it would be extremely unsafe to enact it even in any amended form.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

WHAT ARE WE?

A COLLEGE professor has dug up from the misty past the twenty-five century-old doctrines of Democritus to show us that the "life entity" theories lately announced by Edison are not in the least new or novel.

Edison, as you have read, propounds the idea that life is the result of the association of an innumerable number of invisible, immortal "entities" which while they are in combination continue the existence of whatever thing they compose.

These combinations may in one case be a plant, in another a human body. In either case when death comes these entities separate and except in the case of mankind resolve themselves into other shapes and forms.

In the human case these entities which were characteristic of the person and which constituted his personality, may reappear associated and constitute in their continued existence the after-death life.

An interesting theory, but not a new one.

There have been many guesses, beliefs, theories, suppositions as to what we are; what constitutes personality, and what lives after death.

It is true that 25 centuries ago Democritus, a very learned man, evolved the theory that everything in the universe was constituted of invisible atoms. These atoms he believed to be self-existent, that is, no atom depended upon another for its life and was therefore everlasting.

The varying association of atoms he believed made up the various forms of life which continued only as long as the association was maintained.

Democritus had, for those times, some very original ideas.

He was the son of a very rich family in Thracia, and when he came into his fortune he spent it all traveling, and studying, declaring at the end of his journeys that "I of all men have traveled over the greatest extent of country, and have listened to the most experienced of men."

He had probably traveled a less distance than you would go in a summer vacation motor tour, but he was held by those who knew him to be "almost divine" in his wisdom.

Democritus was known as "The Laughing Philosopher," although history gives no reason for the nickname.

Maybe he, in his wisdom, laughed at the impossibility of proving his own theories, as perhaps Edison smiled as he made public his doctrine of "life entities."

"What we are" and "Why we are" have long puzzled mankind.

After centuries and centuries of honest studying, earnest investigation and wisest theorizing we are still as far from an accurate determination of established fact as when we began.

We know we are, and there, so far as absolutely provable fact goes, we stop.

We know that we are conscious of a surrounding universe which one philosophy tells us is real and another, tells us is unreal, existing only in thought.

Science tells us that all matter is energy, that the indivisible atom of Democritus is easily divided into its electrons, which are not matter at all, but electricity and that matter is really nonexistent.

What we seem to see, it may be we do not see at all, and what we seem to be, may, after all, be not at all what we are.

The President's Church
ST. JOHN'S Episcopal church, across Lafayette square from the White House in Washington, built as a convent and an episcopal church, the difference between Old St. John's in Georgetown (West Washington) and old Christ church in the southeastern part of town, in the early days when the question of transportation was a problem, gradually became the house of worship of Presidents and, as a consequence, to be known as the President's church.

This quaint and dignified structure, which is numbered among the oldest relics of its class within the present city, dates from 1818. Obviously, its historical associations are many.

Originally constructed in the form of a simple Greek cross, its convenient location so popularized it that it was enlarged to the form of a Latin cross, a portico fronted by six plain columns and a three-story steeple added, and a special pew set aside for the President.

Presidents Madison, Monroe, Adams, Jackson, Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, Fillmore, Buchanan, Arthur and Roosevelt are said to have worshipped here.

Many persons of prominence in world affairs have been married in or invited from this church. The remains of Rev. William Hawley, who was its rector for twenty-eight years, lie beneath the chancel.

Among its cherished possessions is a ten-thousand-dollar communion chalice of solid gold set with diamonds, made from the jewelry of a member who willed it to the church.

Considering Its High Resale Value
The PONTIAC SIX
Actually Costs You Less To Own and Drive

Even if the Pontiac Six did not command the high resale prices that it does, it would still enjoy the reputation of being a "wonderful buy" . . . for it is the only car combining the advantages of superior six-cylinder performance and the luxuries of a Fisher body at a price of $745 . . . But with a high resale price which reduces the net cost of ownership, a Pontiac Six is actually more economical to own and drive . . . This is a direct result of definite planning to design a low-price six that would win approval on the sound principles of genuine, long lived, inexpensive owner satisfaction . . . That is why used car buyers are willing to pay more for the Pontiac Six when the original owner is ready to replace it . . . Come in—get a ride—and let us give you the facts.

Here lower prices on all body types (Effective July 15th): Coupe, $745; Sport Roadster $745; Sport Sedan, $745; Standard Sedan, $745; De Luxe Sedan, $745. All prices at factory. Delivery and price include minimum handling charges. Easy to pay on the General Motors Time Payment Plan.
